Ira Deiches is a 1973 graduate of Rutgers College and a 1976 graduate of Rutgers University School of Law at Camden. He is a member of the firm of Deiches & Ferschmann, A Professional Corporation, where he has primary responsibility for the firm's banking, creditors' rights, and bankruptcy matters. He has lectured for various legal, banking, and credit organizations on his areas of practice.

Mr. Deiches was admitted to practice as a member of the Bar of the State of New Jersey and the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey in 1976, and was admitted to the Bar of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit in 1979 and the United States Supreme Court in 1981.

He was a member of the first Lawyers Advisory Committee to the Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey; served, in three instances, on the Third Circuit's Merit Selection Committees to help fill vacancies on the bankruptcy bench; participated on the Court's committee to revise New Jersey's Local Bankruptcy Rules; and was Vice Chairman of the Pro Bono Committee of the Bankruptcy Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association, and Co-Chair of the Camden County Bar Association's Debtor/Creditor Committee.

In 2002, he was named Camden County's Professional Lawyer of the Year by the Supreme Court's Commission on Professionalism in the Law.

Mr. Deiches has represented secured and unsecured creditors, Official Committees, trustees, receivers, consumer and commercial debtors in cases under Chapters 7, 11 and 13, and parties in Adversary Proceedings.

His current hourly rate for professional services is $475/hour.
